

Noel Thomas Tyler, Associate AIA
Intern Architect

Noel Thomas Tyler, a graduate of Georgia Tech's College of Architecture, has been with RWH three years. Noel's experience includes interior design, architectural design, and graphic design. Noel works closely with marketing to prepare project proposals, marketing/graphics concepts, and presentation materials. He also maintains the content and graphics/identity on the RWH website and handles photography of completed projects for marketing purposes.

Education

Georgia Institute of Technology
Bachelor of Architecture 2008

Study Abroad

Barcelona Study Abroad
Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya, Barcelona, Spain 2006

Competitions

Junior Velux Studio
Georgia Institute of Technology Spring 2007

Awards and Scholarships

Frank and Kathleen Woolford Scholarship
Georgia Institute of Technology 2003-2007

Associations

American Institute of Architects
Associate Member, 2008-2010
American Institute of Architecture Students
Member, 2004-2008

Projects

Learn

North Atlanta High School Renovation
Lovett High School Renovation
Jackson Primary Center Addition – seeking LEED Certification
Kennesaw State University, Health Sciences Building – seeking LEED Silver
Gwinnett Technical College, Life Sciences Building – seeking LEED Silver
Brandon Primary Center Renovation

Work

ASHRAE Headquarters Renovation – LEED Platinum
Georgia Institute of Technology, Technology Enterprise Park – 2

Live

Georgia Institute of Technology, Sigma Nu Fraternity House
Georgia Institute of Technology, Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity House
Ross Street House – LEED Platinum

Master Planning

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
Langdale Mill

Connect

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport Consolidated Rental Car Facility (CONRAC)

Play

Wade Walker Park Family YMCA - seeking LEED Certification